About UNFPA and How You Can Make a Difference:

UNFPA is the lead UN agency for delivering a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every childbirth is safe and every young person's potential is fulfilled. UNFPA's strategic plan (2022-2025), reaffirms the relevance of the current strategic direction of UNFPA and focuses on three transformative results: to end preventable maternal deaths; end unmet need for family planning; and end gender-based violence and harmful practices. These results capture our strategic commitments on accelerating progress towards realizing the ICPD and SDGs in the Decade of Action leading up to 2030. Our strategic plan calls upon UN Member States, organizations, and individuals to "build forward better", while addressing the negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on women's and girls' access to sexual and reproductive health and reproductive rights, recover lost gains and realize our goals.

UNFPA is seeking candidates that transform, inspire and deliver high impact and sustained results. We need interns who are exceptional in how they manage the resources entrusted to them and who commit to deliver excellence in programme results.

You would be responsible for:

Within the framework of the internship programme, the intern will:

1. Lead the conceptualization of a platform to engage and advice youth related activities for UNFPA programme areas by:
  - a. Engaging young people, especially 15-19 year olds, to identify challenges and seek opportunities for them to reach their potential in the context of overall socio-economic development
  - b. Identifying a realistic model of a platform for UNFPA Maldives and defining its role and responsibilities to sustainably work independently in the long run.
  - c. Supporting Country Office's work on all areas in defining innovative tools and means to generate an evidenced based narrative to address issues that matter to young people to improve their health and wellbeing
2. Contribute to communicating the work through UNFPA Maldives communications focal point to highlight the work under the internship portfolio.
3. Support editing and formatting of documents and assist with administrative duties including correspondence to internal and external partners, etc.
4. Perform other duties as required.

Qualifying for an Internship

All interns must meet the following educational and other eligibility requirements:
